So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors. -Mark 13:2

HEADLINES . . .

Pastor to be put to death for rape, not apostasy

"Christian Pastor Youcef Nadarkhani will be put to death for several charges of rape and extortion, charges that differ greatly from his original sentence of apostasy, the semi official Fars News agency reported Friday." -In other words, as prophesied, he will be accused and executed for crimes he did not commit simply because he is a Christian. They did this to Jesus 2000 years ago, and the Vatican did this to hundreds of millions as well. Iran knows to kill him for "religious" reasons will strain their relations with the Vatican, who is presently working at forcing all "religions" to gather under her roof in their ecumenical One World Church. So, as Rome has done so often in the past, they have now convinced the leaders in Iran to swap the charges so as to allow the Christian to die, but not in a way that depicts religious intolerance. A Russian Sect Honors Putin as a Saint

"Mother Fotina once led a "Center for Cosmo-Energetic Medicine," and now she prays to Vladimir Putin. Her sect, in a village east of Moscow, honors Russia's once and future president as a reincarnation of St. Paul. The group represents a rising trend in Russia, but its origins are surprisingly mundane." -Prophecy says Rome will once again rule the world via the Vatican. As we also know, the Vatican's Pope declares himself a "God on earth" in writing often. And as History proves, so did Caesar's Herod. Therefore, for Rome to be truly as she was before, her "governors" or "Herod's" as they were once called, must rule the prophesied 10 kingdoms in the New World Order. These men will no doubt seek worship by the blinded masses they rule over. This is why Obama has been "prayed" to and actually given the title of "Messiah" more than a few times. This is also why Putin is being prayed to right now. I'm sure if someone told you just 10 years ago that a Russian leader would be worshipped, or an American president would be tagged Messiah, you would laugh out loud. Not so funny now, is it? Kazakhstan prohibits churches in private homes

"Long antagonistic to a wide spectrum of religious faiths, the former Soviet republic of Kazakhstan passed new regulations that critics are calling a blow to religious freedom. The Kazakh house of parliament approved the bill Thursday. Backers say it will help combat religious extremism. ...As a result, it will be legal to be a Roman Catholic, but illegal to be a Southern Baptist. ...This new law has simply legalized the current practice of persecuting unregistered minority religious groups " -Just like some countries use "terrorism" to pass unjust laws, they will use "religious extremism" to try and stop Christians from gathering. And the fact Antichrist's religion of Roman Catholicism is somehow legal, but all other illegal, is nothing short of a harbinger as to how it will be like globally very soon. Still, it was "illegal" for Christians to meet in the Catacombs 2000 years ago. But that didn't stop a single Christians from obeying God rather than man. However, laws like this will separate the true Christians from the lukewarm I'm sure. Truth is, the "shaking" has already begun. Now do you see why the Vatican used Lyndon Johnson back in 1954 to "invent" the 501C3 tax code that most Churches today have signed up for so they can receive Government funding as long as they agree not to preach prophecy? Soon, those churches in America, or any other nation for that matter, that haven't "registered" with the government will find themselves in real trouble. So be it. This is where our God shines the most! Oct 02 11, 12:10:16

Jail Or Church?

"Starting next week, the program will allow a city judge to sentence misdemeanor offenders to work off their sentences in jail and pay a fine, or go to church every Sunday for a year. Offenders who select church can pick the place of worship but must check in weekly with the pastor and the police department." -Forcing people to go to church is a bold violation of both a Biblical doctrine and constitutional law regarding the separation of church & State. But then this is exactly what prophecy says the Roman Catholic church will force all nations to do in our day. That being said, are you ready for what's about to happen? Are you sure!? Iranian Parliament Dispatches Delegation to Vatican

"Iran and the Vatican have long had good ties and interactions. The two sides' cooperation mostly pertain to culture, media, gatherings and exhibitions." -The Vatican claims to be a Christian religion. Yet the Christian Bible clearly says in 2 Thessalonians 3:14, "And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed." Do Muslims obey the Christian Bible? No, they kill Christians. So why does the Vatican "have company" with them. It's because as prophecy also predicted and history confirmed, Rome kills Christians too. Just over 500,000,000 to be exact. That's over 83 times more than Hitler! Who by the way killed the Jews for the Vatican. Sep 28 11, 02:09:19

Iran just months from N-bomb

"We believe if Iran broke out now they could have a bomb in six months... They've done this right in front of our faces." -Does this mean Iran is America's next target? Or does this mean Iran, who has diplomatic relations with the Vatican is about to do something drastic for Rome? Time will tell. In any event, as Christians we have nothing to be concerned about. Our Lord is STILL coming back! Sep 28 11, 02:09:19

Scot misses game because of faith

"Murray refuses to play on Sundays, saying it would go against his religious principles that came to the fore when he was recovering from injury in 2005. "Euan Murray is discounted because it's Sunday," Scotland coach Andy Robinson said of the tighthead prop." -In years past this would never be an issue worthy of reporting in the mainstream News. But in today's media wherein Rome needs all the help they can get, one can rest assured any "celebrity" choosing to keep the Roman Sabbath holy as if it was the Christian Sabbath is bound to make News. Sep 27 11, 03:09:18

Syria TV says Christians will chopped up and fed to dogs.

"Many Syrian Christians, the website reads, are terrorised; in some cities, like Homs, they are even afraid to leave their houses. Some churches have already been burned down." -As prophesied, the time of trouble has arrived in many countries around the world. Soon it will be apparent in all nations, especially the USA. Sep 27 11, 03:09:18

Why the Antichrist Matters in Politic

"THE end is near, or so it seems to a segment of Christians aligned with the religious right. The global economic meltdown, numerous natural disasters and the threat of radical Islam have fueled a conviction among some evangelicals that these are the last days. While such beliefs might be dismissed as the rantings of a small but vocal minority, apocalyptic fears helped drive the antigovernment movements of the 1930s and '40s and could help define the 2012 presidential campaign as well." -So, just as Satan planned in 1930-40, the powers that be will ignore the prophetic events of today and use them to their advantage to prevent a repeat of the 1930's and 40's. This is how spiritually inept some people can become when they refuse to open Bibles. Now do you understand how Satan was able to convince the presidential candidates to "act" like Christians in this 2012 campaign for election? As I've said so many times before, they will do anything to further their careers, even if it means to claim Christ Lord. By the way, as you read the article, notice how they proclaim Antichrist's false doctrines and false prophetic assumptions as actual Biblical facts. Ironic isn't it? On one hand they hope to avoid being tagged Antichrist, while on the other hand they can't help but to use Antichrist's false doctrines as a way to appease the Christians who have been taught the false prophesies in the first place. Oh what a tangled web they weave! Sep 27 11, 03:09:18

Killer earthquakes on the rise

"The last decade has seen an intensification in earthquake activities. The 2004 Sumatra quake in Indonesia, which registered 9.3 on the Richter scale, has triggered stress in many areas. The Sikkim earthquake could be a manifestation of this stress. Earthquakes, some scientists believe, are on the rise. The earthquake in Fukushima in Japan had a magnitude of 8.9 and was the largest in the recorded history of Japan. The February 2010 Chile earthquake registered a similar magnitude as the Japan quake while the January 2010 quake in Haiti had a magnitude of 7.0 on the Richter scale." -Will it get better? Not according to Christian prophecy. In fact, it's about to get a lot worse. Sep 27 11, 03:09:18

2,000-year-old Dead Sea Scrolls go online

"Surfers can search high-resolution images of the scrolls for specific passages, zoom in and out, and translate verses into English." -Praise the Lord this is finally online. Now we can easily show beyond a shadow of doubt that the King James Bible is the only Bible that actually matches the Dead Sea Scrolls. All the modern day Bible scoffers will now be hushed, and all the bogus bibles will be exposed. Still, will this make all of Christendom rush into the truth as it is written and be eternally blessed? No, only the elect will have the heart felt desire to be blessed. The rest will stay in their NIV's, NASB's and other Catholic Bibles. But then, that too was prophesied. Sep 27 11, 03:09:18

Public school coaches told not to participate in prayer

"Some football coaches are in trouble for something they did with their players. They said a prayer." -If someone told you 20 years ago that praying in school would literally become illegal, I'm sure most would think if that ever happened it would mean we need to get very serious about our faith because such a law would prove we are very near the end. That being said, has anyone ever told you such things 20 years ago? And if so... are you finally serious? Sep 27 11, 03:09:52

Police pounce on business for showing Bible

"A woman who had been in the restaurant complained to police. A statement from the Lancashire department said officers were "duty bound" to investigate, and they concluded the business could be in breach of the law. The law warns "people who play images or sounds that stir up hatred again homosexuals could be guilty of an offense," according to a London Daily Mail report." -The owner posted some Bible verses regarding homosexuality that, according to the law, are now considered "offensive." But I thought Homosexuals didn't think those Bible verses were valid anymore? The fact they they are offended not only proves they know the passages are actually still valid, it also proves Jesus was right when He said in John 3:20, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved." Sep 27 11, 03:09:52

10 Commandments for Zambia

"For the first time this country has a Catholic president and our government will support the church," Sata said, recalling that the nation was predominantly Catholic." -Problem with that statement is, #1, The commandments of the Catholic church are not the commandments of the Bible. #2, the Vatican is home to Antichrist. Still, this was prophesied, and this does declare we are that much closer to home when governments openly declare their loyalty to the Antichrist. Rest assured this will cause true Christians in Zambia to be persecuted in the coming days. Sep 26 11, 08:09:58

Mexico Evangelicals Leave Village Amid Crucifixion Threats

"At least 70 evangelical Christians in Mexico's east-central region were homeless Saturday, September 17, after being expelled by local authorities from their village where traditional Catholics reportedly threatened to "crucify or lynch" them." -The Catholics in Mexico did this very same thing in June of 2001, and now they are doing it again. Worse yet, with our borders being wide open, there are now millions of Roman Catholics in America that see no wrong in killing people that refuse to bow to their Pope. Now do you see the prophesied fruits of this church and how they match perfectly with Islam? Do you also see how easy it will be to convince Roman Catholics to kill non-Catholics? As prophesied, the bloodthirsty fruits of this beast are about to be realized in our day! Sep 26 11, 08:09:57

Freedom of religion panel about to expire

"The author of a bill to extend the life of the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom (USCIRF) has said the White House wouldn't mind closing down the committee forever. It's only a few days from oblivion." -What gets me is why this committee was needed in the first place. And now after many rely on it to ward off "legal" problems, they are going to close it? Oh.. wait a minute! I get it now.. that's why they opened it in the first place! To make them rely on it! That way when they remove it, it cripples the Christians that trusted it. Now do you see why trusting GOD and not man is the wise choice? Mankind is nothing but a pawn of Satan. Sep 26 11, 08:09:57

Homosexuals kill cash sources for Christian charities

"A shopping network that contributes some of its profits to leading Christian family organizations is battling an Internet-organized campaign by homosexual-rights activists. The Charitable Give Back Group, formerly known as the Christian Values Network, says activist websites that enable users to create their own "cause" boast they have prompted hundreds of corporations to cut ties with the shopping network because it contributes to "anti-gay" non-profit organizations." -Prophecy does say Christians will have their funds interrupted by antichristian organizations. This is of course one way of doing just that. Sep 26 11, 08:09:57

Armor bearers provide last defense in church security

"On Sunday mornings, while members of the congregation at the Faith & Power Worship Center in Apopka close their eyes and bow their heads in prayer, one man keeps his head up, his eyes open. He is Minister David Sepulveda. And he is armed. "It's not there for everyone to see," he said, "but it's there." -In other words, there is no faith in God protecting His people in this church. Just like the Pope with his "secret service" armed guards that trot along side the bulletproof popemobile, the pastors of the world are becoming less and less dependant upon God and more dependent on the flesh. Sep 25 11, 02:09:31

Fifth Graders Quizzed on Proper Condom Use

"Does your fifth grader know how to use a condom? They may soon learn if they go to school in Washington, D.C." -Fifth graders are TEN YEARS OLD! That's anywhere from 3 to 6 years before puberty, yet our government is teaching them how to have safe sex? Is this not an open sign that the United States Government is controlled by the largest known Pedophile organization, that is not only the richest nation on earth, it is the most powerful political entity? You're correct, I am speaking of the Roman Catholic Vatican. How is this not considered child molestation when teachers are allowed to teach them how to become sexually active at such a young ages? Is this not what a pedophile does when "seducing" his victim? Sep 25 11, 02:09:31

Pope Highlights Bond With Muslims

"The pope stressed the importance of religion in modern society and said he believes there can be a "fruitful collaboration" between Christians and Muslims." -This is more of the same documented proof the Pope is not a Christian. In fact, it proves all those church leaders in the past were right when they declared in writing, he is Antichrist. What he teaches goes directly against Scriptural command regarding yoking with unbelievers. For those Catholics that need proof of what I just said, see Amos 3:3, 1 Cor. 15:33, 2 Cor. 6:14,17, 2 Thess. 3:14, and James 4:4. And if you think the Bible can be ignored by tradition, click here for evidence as to why your church leaders fear the Word of God with such a passion. Sep 23 11, 02:09:20

Belief in God Boils Down to a Gut Feeling

"For many people, believing in God comes down to a gut feeling that a benevolent deity is out there. A study now finds that gut feelings may be very important in determining who goes to church every Sunday and who avoids the pews." -Firstly, Sunday is not the Sabbath, so the author of the article's gut is actually lying to her there. Secondly, for those of you that used to be in the occult know, one of Satan's pet names is "Dr Feelgood" to his ardent followers. Belief in Christ is not about "the gut" as this article assumes. Christ appeals to the HEART! In fact, Romans 10:10 says, "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." However, if Satan can get people to "feel" as if they are in the right church, they will stay. After all, how many of us have heard someone say "I feel in my gut that God wants me to do this," and then not long after doing the deed it becomes apparent it wasn't God that spoke to their gut at all. This article is the ultimate example of the foundation of theology in Christendom today. But then, that too was prophesied. See 2 Corinthians 11:4

Woman sues state over mandatory 'mark of the beast'

"Rev. 13:16-18 and 14:9-11 "explicitly commands believers to not participate in a global numbering identification system using the number of man, and eternally condemns participation in that system," the lawsuit contends." -No the Bible doesn't say that. But, people that don't read Bibles will believe this article simple because it's printed in a newspaper. The 666 is not the mark at all. The Bible clearly states in Revelation 13:17 it is the "number of his name." But the author of the article purposely leaves that fact out. Who's name is that prophecy speaking of? Antichrist's name of course. The ID cards are not the mark! I prove that on my "Global ID" page. The ID is however a way to enforce the mark. But then, so is your social security number, your present driver's licence, your bank account, your school ID, your Facebook page, your cell phone 911 tracking app, your on-star vehicle tracking device, your iPad GPS, your CB radio, your church membership and even your credit info. The Bible does not say "mankind is numbered" by Rome all! It says the beast's NAME has a number. So what is the mark of the beast? See my "mark of the Beast" video or webpage to find out. Sep 22 11, 02:09:31

Hungarian churches divided over new religion law

"We wanted a new law to make it more difficult to establish churches here, and we're happy the present government has now done something. ...Under the law, only 14 of 358 registered churches and religious associations will be granted legal recognition, while others will have to reapply for registration by a court after two-thirds approval in parliament." -This is Antichrist's way of weeding out the problem churches. We expect this will spread globally, especially since the 501C3 government churches have become the norm in America. So, as you start your home churches, remember to keep them small. When they grow too large, ask the Lord to elect a leader and split the church in two. The church meetings must also be mobile. What I mean is, meet in a different home each Sabbath for worship. Some may say this is "breaking the law." But we must keep in mind that the powers that be also made laws 2000 years ago demanding the apostles not preach Jesus, did they not? I praise the Lord they chose to "obey God rather than man," (Acts 5-29) because now I know Jesus as Lord, as do you. Would you want to deprive your neighbor of the same love? The laws of the land are to be kept. yes. But when they go against a thus saith the Lord, Christians need to stand for what is written in the Scripture. Sep 21 11, 02:09:1

Obama tears up the Constitution

"In his two years and nine months in office, Barack Obama has compiled a spectacular record of non-compliance with the Constitution. Here are just some of the ways his administration has failed to execute the laws while using raw, unauthorized power." -What many are unaware of is, not only has Rome stated in writing that "They [Catholics] must penetrate wherever possible in the administration of civil affairs... all Catholics should do all in their power to cause the constitution of states, and legislation to be modeled on the principles of the true Church." -Encyclical of Leo XIII. (click here for more Vatican quotes like this) Rome has forced the change of most of the constitutions of Middle Eastern countries, all of Europe, and now she is focusing on America. Those that refuse to change are presently at war or about to be at war if they continue to refuse. Why? Unless the Constitutions are changed, they have no legal way to enforce Sunday Laws. And by the way, this changing of the Constitution, was prophesied to happen. Sep 20 11, 01:09:57

Online 'hate' campaign targets Christian sites

"A formal investigation of several Christian organizations has been launched by PayPal, the huge money-transfer company, because of an online campaign of "hate" against them by homosexuals, according to one of the targets." -This too was prophesied. Satan will do all he can to stop the funds from flowing to prevent the truth we preach. PayPal has caused problems for this ministry 3 times already. But in my case it's because I refuse to bow to their demands to get the prophesied 501C3. Still, it's not only PayPal that causes such problems for ministers. The enemy of souls has a bevy of ways to attack Christian ministries today. For example, promises are often made by some believers to help God's peopl do a certain work, or purchase a certain item to further the work, and for whatever reason, the devil somehow prevents the help from either coming as promised, or continuing as planned. This cripples to work at times. When this happens, the ministers should never complain but go into prayer instead as this is something we all must expect to have happen often, as it does glorify the Lord's truth when the enemy fears it. After all, regardless of how it gets done, ministers need to know they can trust the Lord that it will eventually get done as He commands anyway. That's why I often ask for prayer for this ministry because praying is the only real way it will get done in the first place. It has always been the policy of this ministry to ask the Lord instead of mankind for help. That way we see two blessings when the prayer is answered. #1, we see the Lord is pleased with the work we do, and so blesses us to continue doing it. #2, we meet a Christian that actually has the discerning faith to obey the Lord's nudging of their heart to help us get the work done. And so, to God be the glory! Sep 19 11, 03:09:58

City demands Christians get permit for Bible study

"Chuck and Stephanie Fromm already have been fined $300 for holding Bible studies for their friends at their home, and they face the potential for additional fines of $500 for each study held, according to a legal team taking their case to court. The newest conflict over Bible studies in homes in America arose in San Juan Capistrano, Calif., where city officials say city code section 9-3.301 prohibits religious organizations in residential neighborhoods without a conditional-use permit, a sometimes very expensive procedure." -And why do they do this? Satan knows the church started in the homes of Christians 2000 years ago. He also knows they will be in homes in the end as well due to no churches embracing the Truth as it is written as well as due to persecution. So, he does all he can to "legally" disrupt the churches from meeting. Truth is, this doesn't have to be a problem. All you need to do is have the church meetings in different homes every week. Then, whenever a home gets a "warning" you move to mark them off the list as a possible meeting place. If you have to, meet in the woods, or caves like the Christians in China have been doing for over a decade now. Sep 18 11, 12:09:30

Canary Islands Govt Puzzled By Earthquake Swarm

"The Canary Islands Government says it has commenced an in-depth geological survey of El Hierro, the smallest of the islands, in an effort to determine the source of an earthquake swarm. The unprecedented seismic activity commenced on 19 July. In excess of 6,000 earthquakes have been recorded up to 14 September 2011. More than two dozen tremors were recorded during Wednesday (14 Sept.) alone." -Amazing isn't it? Our government leaders all around the world are "puzzled" at the increase in earthquakes, yet a babe in Christ with just a smattering of knowledge of the prophetic Word knows why we have so many quakes. Would you like to know why? Click here Sep 18 11, 12:09:30

Has America Become a Nation of Psychotics?

"Has America become a nation of psychotics? You would certainly think so, based on the explosion in the use of antipsychotic medications. In 2008, with over $14 billion in sales, antipsychotics became the single top-selling therapeutic class of prescription drugs in the United States, surpassing drugs used to treat high cholesterol and acid reflux." -Ok, this can be addressed by simply sharing one prophecy. When speaking of the Antichrist in Rome, Revelation 18:23 says it is, "by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." Where does the word "sorceries" come from in this passage? It is a translation of the Greek word "pharmakeia." This is where we get our modern term "PHARMACY" from. Nuff said? Sep 18 11, 12:09:30

Day Care Owner Accused of Doping Kids

"Kimberly Lane, owner of Luv n Learning Child Development Center, in Van Alstyne, Texas, has been accused of drugging kids so that they'll fall asleep. Lane was arrested Wednesday on 16 counts of child endangerment after an employee told police that Lane had mixed antihistamines with milk and gave the concoction to the children..." -A few decades ago Satan manipulated the economy to where buying certain items became impossible with one income, so he convinced mothers to leave the home to get a job. Since that day the children have suffered greatly because someone other than mom raised them. My question then has to be the obvious. Do you want children? You do? Then be prepared to have some financial trials in life. Sacrificing a few bells and whistles in life for the sake of your children is a sacrifice Christ looks upon with joy. After all, what's more important? Your children? Or the toys in the garage? And PLEASE, before you email me, understand that my wife and I raised 8 children on one income for decades. And oftentimes that one income caused her and I to go without food for a day or two so the kids could eat. And yes our electric was turned off on occasion as well. But we made it through all that as a family. Truth is, the love of Christ makes it easy to sacrifice for those you love. Sep 18 11, 12:09:29

National Back to Church Sunday Set for Sept. 18

"Back To Church Sunday," a national movement to reverse declining church attendance and encourage former church-goers to rediscover church, will be celebrated Sept. 18 across the country. Since its inception, more than 3.5 million invitations from over 7,400 churches have been extended to unchurched people to attend the special service." -One can see this as stage one for Antichrist to get as many "unchurched" citizens used to attending church each week. Stage two of course would be to convince everyone that attending church on Sunday will stop the ever increasing calamities. When will that day come? As soon as Rome is sure they can control every citizen across the nation of course. As prophecy confirms, they won't be able to control the elect. When they discover how we refuse to ignore Acts 5:29 to obey man over God, the laws will be put in place that prophecy calls the enforcement of the mark of the beast. Sep 16 11, 12:09:52

Religious leaders of all faiths promotes global tolerance

"Jewish, Muslim clerics, Christian clergy and those of the Bahai and Hindu faiths, conference focuses on promoting peace and tolerance." - You do realize what "tolerance" means here don't you? It means all Christians that are part of this "global tolerance" have agreed to declare Jesus Christ was wrong when He gave them the "Great Commission" as He was ascending to Heaven 2000 years ago. It means all Christians must never share their faith with people they know are headed for Hell in man made religions. In short, it is the prophesied ecumenical global doctrine of the Roman Catholic Antichrist! Sep 16 11, 12:09:52

3-year-olds branded "racist," "homophobic"

"Over 30,000 British schoolchildren, some as young as three, have had their names registered on a government database and branded "racist" or "homophobic" for using playground insults, infractions that could impact their future careers." -If your child is in a government funded school, they are literally sitting ducks for all sorts of unjust laws being forced upon them. How can a child of 3yrs have any real understanding of anything an adult knows? As for the term homophobic. This is just outspoken homosexuals who are desperately trying to get Christians to believe the Word of God's factual statements concerning their sinful ways as being fear in their hearts. The actual truth is, they are the ones that fear what the Word of God says. In short, they are afraid of Christians. And rightly so. For it is the Christian that does the work of the judgment during the soon to commence 1000 years. See 1 Corinthians 6:2,3 Sep 16 11, 12:09:51

Court says teacher has no right to banners referring to God

"Bradley Johnson, a mathematics teacher in the Poway Unified School District, had displayed banners in his classrooms for two decades that he saw as celebrating the religious heritage of America, including "In God We Trust," "God Bless America," and "God Shed His Grace on Thee." But after he transferred to a new school, a new principal in 2007 ordered the banners taken down." -Amazing isn't it? Those very same statements can be found on our money and our government buildings. But where we teach our children about the moral values in life, it's now ILLEGAL!?! No wonder our children are so confused. Want to see hundreds of more reasons they are confused? Click here. Sep 15 11, 02:09:24

Pat Robertson: Divorcing spouse with Alzheimer's justifiable

"Religious broadcaster Pat Robertson told his "700 Club" viewers that divorcing a spouse with Alzheimer's is justifiable because the disease is "a kind of death." -This is of course his opinion and not actually truth as the Word states. Scripture confirms the only way out of a marriage is by death or adultery. Robertson, being a short robe Jesuit, is of course ok with suggesting oaths regarding "to death do us part" can be broken outside biblical jurisprudence. But then. Satan and his minions in Rome have been attacking the sanctity of marriage since Eden. So, it's only natural Robertson, and those like him, will teach as they are "moved" to teach by the enemy of souls. Sep 15 11, 02:09:01

Perry talks about his faith

"A lifelong Methodist, Perry regularly attends Lake Hills Church, a relatively new and modern evangelical megachurch in Austin, where the Rev. Mac Richard incorporates live music, movies and drama in his services." -In other words, just as the Word predicted in 2 Timothy 4:3, the pastors of today preach only what the people want to hear. This is why the churches give them music, movies, and dramas instead of doctrine, truth, and prophetic warnings. It's no longer a worship service in most churches today. It's merely churchianity. In fact, the preachers are no longer selected by their ability to preach the Word as it is written. All the megachurches want now are preachertainers. Seeing how this is how the majority of American churches are now, this is why Perry has no problem "talking about his faith." If he was a true Christian that not only kept the Law but shared his faith in Jesus Christ as it is written of Him in the Bible, he would be shunned as many of us are. But like most today, Jesus "embarrasses" them. They cannot walk as He walked because they believe they will lose their jobs, friends, or family members. But today's lukewarm version of Jesus is no longer "embarrassing to "Christians." They feel less embarrassed to be called "Christians" because everyone else is doing it as well. In a nutshell, Rick Perry is not what the Bible calls a Christian. He can become one, yes. But as prophecy demands, he must "come out of" Babylon to do it. If he refuses, like most do, he is then what prophecy calls, a puppet of the Antichrist. Sep 15 11, 02:09:01

366 million people worldwide now have diabetes

"An estimated 366 million people worldwide now suffer from diabetes and the global epidemic is getting worse, health officials said Tuesday. The International Diabetes Federation described the number of cases as "staggering," with one person dying from diabetes every seven seconds." -You know what's really sad about all this? The AMA doctors know for a fact the natural (real) doctors have a cure for diabetes. But since they have the money and the power, they "legally" prevent them from saying they can heal you. They can do it, but they just can't say they can do it, that way their advertising methods are severely crippled. That being the case, the AMA literally allows someone to die

"every seven seconds" to make money. How much money do they make? Are you sitting down? Keep in mind before I share this that I am only talking about this one disease! There are literally thousands for them to pick from today. Ignoring the co-pay in insurance companies and their take, because whether you pay or they pay, the drug companies get the money. I checked online and found that, "on average" it costs about $8.80 a day for insulin. With 366 million people taking this drug daily, that actually means the drug companies make a whopping $3,220,800,000 EACH AND EVER DAY on insulin alone! Now do you see why they don't want people to know about real cures your natural doctor has? Looking at these numbers I have to say it appears to me that diabetes has to be their number one source of income! So I don't expect a change in policy with the AMA on this any time soon. Outrage over students' savagery to monkey

"Appearing to have a broken spine and screeching in pain, a monkey which had been beaten to a near-dead state by a group of University of KwaZulu-Natal students on Sunday tried to drag itself away from its attackers. But the students, seeing that it was still alive, resumed beating it with sticks until they killed it." -This college has many direct ties to the vatican. (put the word "Catholic" in their site's search engine) So it's not surprising some of the students will have the same unloving fruits as most Vatican teachers. It's when they are able to convince the majority of the people on earth to kill for gain that we will see the death sentence placed upon the remnant people. And that day is a lot closer than most think today. Everything from video games to out right abortion has "changed" the minds of many into blood thirsty puppets of the prophesied Antichrist. Killer words: Muslims text death threats to Christians

"Muslim extremists are using a relatively new tool in their attempt to intimidate and bully Christians, with death threats sent by text-messaging to Christian church leaders, a new report confirms." -They are getting bolder because the end is closer. According to their doctrines, their fruit, and their hatred, their real god is Satan, and he needs to get his henchmen ready to strike against his enemy on earth. Christians. Is your faith strong enough to stand when facing the ultimate sacrifice? Even if you are called to be martyred where you won't see their weapons fall useless at their side as does the Gideon band when that final day arrives. You still must take stock in yourself. Can you be obedient even unto death? Can you really do it? If you have any doubt in your heart you must cry unto the Creator God for the faith He promised those that study His Word daily. For it is written in Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." Once He answers that prayer, pray for the Latter Rain so as to glorify the Lord like no other on the face of this earth. And keep asking as did the widow in Luke 18:1-8. He will grant your request. You have His Word on that. Sep 14 11, 01:09:41

Ceaseless surveillance of We the People

"More of us, including the new generation, are becoming aware of what the report "Surveillance in the Homeland" (truth-out.org, Aug. 22) describes as the state of our personal privacy: "Our phone calls, our emails and website visits, our financial records, our travel itineraries, and our digital images captured on powerful surveillance cameras are swelling the mountain of data that is being mined (by the Obama administration) for suspicious patterns and associations." -Without this mountain of data on each and every soul on earth, Antichrist cannot hope to enforce his mark. One of the benefits of being a prophecy understanding Christian is, at least we know why the leaders do such things. Compiling this with all the other prophecies regarding the weather, calamities, wars, crime, disease, famine, economy, and a host of others. Our inner peace becomes very real knowing we are soon to meet our Lord in the air. However, for the rest of the people, as Jesus described in Luke 21:26, they will be very fearful of all that's happening and is about to happen.. Sep 14 11, 01:09:41

Abuse victims seek int'l court case against pope

"Clergy sex abuse victims upset that no high-ranking Roman Catholic leaders have been prosecuted for sheltering guilty priests have turned to the International Criminal Court, seeking an investigation of the pope and top Vatican cardinals for possible crimes against humanity. The Vatican called the move a "ludicrous publicity stunt." -How can this be a publicity stunt when the man and all his cohorts are guilty and have been guilty of such crimes since 60AD? It's amazing how many lies are openly stated by this church in the media and still the Roman Catholics stay in this church. The fact they stay in is evidence enough that they are taught to allow sin in their lives while they prepare for Heaven. Problem with that theological standpoint is, what they're defining is actually Hell and not Heaven as their reward. For it is written in numerous areas in the Word that sin will not be allowed in Heaven. Period! By the way, this is not the first time Ratzinger had to deal with his involvement in the molestation scandal after becoming Pope. He used "diplomatic immunity" the first time he was served to appear in Court regarding his signatures appearing on documents outlining methods for covering up the rapes. That act alone proves he was guilty, but protected by international law. Convenient? Yes it is. Antichrist has control over all the laws of the land to escape prosecution when it benefits him. Only Christ can judge him now. And He will do just that. Very shortly. Sep 14 11, 01:09:41

Chinese man kills 6 people with axe

"A farmer with mental health problems killed six people, two of them children, with an axe as they made their way to a kindergarten in China on Wednesday, the local government and media reports said." -They insist on calling it "mental health problems" when in fact it's demonic possession. This is just one more prophetic event being fulfilled in our day. For it is written in Ezekiel 7:23 that, "...the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence." T.D. Jakes, Pastors Upset After Rating Drop, Dow Jones Plunge

"U.S. pastors vented on Twitter their frustration as the nation boiled under news of the first-ever credit rating downgrade in its history Friday and the Dow Jones Industrial Average's 600-plus point plunge Monday." -As Jesus predicted, the "pastors" are far more concerned about the money they make "preaching" than the fact the world's coming to an end. Instead of tweeting to their flock to prepare to meet the Lord, they're tweeting about the almighty dollar! Truth is, when they worship the dollar they will be wholly unable to understand prophecy. So, if you follow after preachers such as this, expect to be caught completely off guard when the Eastern sky splits. Sep 13 11

Gunmen Kill Children In Pakistan Bus Attack

"Gunmen have opened fire on a school bus in northwestern Pakistan, killing at least three children, police have said." -These are the fruits of the same spirit from hell that prophecy says rules the Vatican. Children are always their target in either molestation, or murder. The current pedophilia scandals and historic inquisitions of this church proves this hands down. Even the Jesuit oath speaks of how the priests are commanded to rip children from the womb to kill them. Only cowards go after defenseless children. Satan is especially proud of such acts, and only in the last days do we see such acts daily. Children are raped by Catholic priests, aborted by their mothers, brainwashed by teachers, murdered by their parents, and gunned down by Muslims. Do you recall before Moses came as a "Messiah type" they killed the children? Do you also recall before Jesus came as the true Messiah they killed the children? And right now before Jesus returns they are killing them again. Sep 13 11, 02:09:30

Fans treat killer Spanish bull like rock star

"With more than 3,000 fans cheering, a hulking, black-and-white fighting bull named "Mouse" chased one daredevil runner after another, trying to flip them airborne and skewer them as he did a month ago in a fatal goring that enshrined his reputation as Spain's most feared and famous beast." -Notice they claim he is a "famous" and not "infamous" beast? This is today's mentality thanks to Satan's slow ongoing process of mind manipulation. As Christians we know that by beholding we become changed. Therefore Satan does all he can to change peoples loving minds into hateful minds. This bull has killed many people during his 11 year "career," and now he is considered a celebrity by Spanish Roman Catholics!? Let me ask you this. How hard will it be for Satan to convince people like this that killing remnant Christians is a good thing when their Pope says it's necessary so as to stop the growing calamities? Sep 13 11, 02:09:29

More Christians killed in Nigeria

"Mark Lipdo, a coordinator for a Christian group called the Stefanos Foundation, says 13 are thought dead in an overnight Friday attack in a village near the city of Jos. He says others are missing and feared dead. Jos sits on the dividing line between Nigeria's largely Christian south and Muslim north. ...The incident follows an overnight Thursday attack in which 12 people were killed." -The time of trouble is here. In fact, it's been here for years now. But most American Christians deny that because it's not happening in their neighborhoods. ...Yet. Sep 12 11, 02:09:10

Religious leaders say peace begins when world faiths unite

"Denver's religious leaders said on the 10th anniversary that the best hope for peace begins with the world's faith traditions coming together. In service of that ideal, representatives of the three Abrahamic faiths, Judaism, Islam and Christianity gathered at St. John's Cathedral Sunday to have "Conversations That Matter" and "A Multifaith Service of Remembrance Healing and Hope." -Antichrist knows all too well that the remnant people will not join with such "faiths" because the Word of God states numerous times never to do so. For a few such areas, see Proverbs 13:20, 1 Corinthians 15:33, 2 Thessalonians 3:14, James 4:4, Chronicles 19:2, Amos 3:3, 2 Corinthians 6:14,17 & 1 Peter 2:9. But he also knows the other religions will join together because he presently has absolute control over them. He does this because in the end it will be much easier to identify the remnant people for when that day comes to enforce the death sentence upon us. What Antichrist isn't saying is, just like in Esther's day, when they seek to kill God's people, it is their lives that will end at the coming of the Lord. Sep 12 11, 02:09:11

D.C. churches help 9/11 mosque grow

"Christian houses of worship are lending their parking lots to a radical Washington-area mosque that aided some of the hijackers who attacked the Pentagon on Sept. 11, despite warnings from FBI agents and local anti-jihad watch groups that such brotherly outreach is only helping the Islamic center expand and potentially attract future terrorists." -Surprised? I'm not. After all, this is D.C. where most politicians are doing all they can to help Rome bring Islam to power globally. Sep 12 11, 02:09:11

FEMA'S term 'federal family' for govt expands under Obama

"The G-word "government" has been nearly banished, with FEMA instead referring to federal, state and local "partners" as well as "offices" and "personnel." 'Government' is such a dirty word right now," says Florida State University communication professor Davis Houck. "Part of what the federal government does and any elected official does is change the terms of the language game into terms that are favorable to them." "Family" can evoke favorable thoughts of motherhood and security. But it can also conjure images of Big Brother and organized crime." -You know what's really disturbing about all this? Many people will fall for this gentle approach so as to allow the government even more control over them. The truth here is that they know everyone is on to their evil activity. So they try anything and everything they can think of to cover it all up, or at least gild the lily. You know, like Rome has done since 538AD. They claim to be a loving Christian church when in fact they are the base of operations for Antichrist. Only in the last days when corruption runs so deep do we see that lies can now become the new truth to some. Sep 12 11, 02:09:10

Chinese activist gets 9 months for protesting

"A Chinese court sentenced an activist to nine months in jail Friday for staging a protest on behalf of other activists, a prosecution that illustrates the authoritarian government's unease about vocal, Internet-empowered social campaigners." -In other words, the powers that be fear the people with a passion now that they have a way to actually organize and protest. That being the Internet of course. So, instead of shutting down the Internet, which of course would cause some nation's economies to falter even more, they flex their judicial muscles on the common man removing his ability to have a voice in his community. This is what America and all other nations that bow to the Pope will become in the coming days. After all, the present Pope did in fact say he agrees with a socialist society in writing. So China's action against protesters is acceptable to him. Every nation will have to adopt this type of structure, especially when they enforce the mark. To allow the people to successfully manipulate legislation would prevent Antichrist from demanding the worship prophecy declares is his final agenda. Sep 09 11, 01:09:35

Bill gives 12-year-olds authority on medical treatment

"A bill on its way to the full California Senate will bypass parents and give complete authority to children as young as 12 years old regarding medical treatment decisions for major infections and sexually transmitted diseases" -Why do this you ask? As we watch how they are making pedophilia more and more acceptable so as to help the Vatican out of an astronomical number of lawsuits, they have to set the stage for if and when it becomes legal to have sex with minors. This is the only reason the Roman Catholic sanctioned NAMBLA organization was founded. However, if they fail to legalize it, at least with this law they will still be able to molest the children behind closed doors, and when they infect the children in a bevy of ways with STD's, they can then bring them to doctors without their parents permission to treat them. Is it any wonder we have so many calamities today? As prophesied by Jesus Himself, society has become just as evil as it was in Noah's day, which by the way caused the Lord to put an end to it all back then. Truth is, it's about to end once again. But this time, permanently. Sep 09 11, 12:17:15

Disasters in US: An extreme and exhausting year

"Unprecedented triple-digit heat and devastating drought. Deadly tornadoes leveling towns. Massive rivers overflowing. A billion-dollar blizzard. And now, unusual hurricane-caused flooding in Vermont. If what's falling from the sky isn't enough, the ground shook in places that normally seem stable: Colorado and the entire East Coast. On Friday, a strong quake triggered brief tsunami warnings in Alaska. Arizona and New Mexico have broken records for wildfires. Total weather losses top $35 billion, and that's not counting Hurricane Irene, according to the National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration. There have been more than 700 U.S. disaster and weather deaths, most from the tornado outbreaks this spring." -In other words, Christian prophecy is being fulfilled so often now that even the lost are starting to see it. That being the case, when the Loud Cry gets louder, MANY will be open to present truth because they too live on the same troubled planet we do. We are without a doubt standing on the precipice of the most spiritually prosperous time in history of the church. Sep 09 04, 11:01:43

Verdict! Christians convict pastor for 'giving out Bibles'

"The pastor of a Wichita, Kan., church who has been vocal in speaking out on homosexuality on public streets, the influence of abortion interests in his state and other biblical issues says he has been convicted on charges relating to his decision to hand out Bibles at a Muslim mosque, in a courtroom staffed and filled with Christians." -Just one more group of Christians with the fruits of Antichrist for today's world. Why do they claim to be Christians when their actions boldly prove otherwise? It's because Satan knows that if he can get the wicked to claim Christ Lord it will soil the message of Christ just enough to make many seek other religions instead. Truth is, this is what he's been doing since 538AD with the Roman Catholic church. Thanks to the Popes and their Babylonian prelates, many people hate Christians because the Catholic church claimed to be Christians while they tortured and killed hundreds of millions. Whether it's bold antichristian activity that leads to a prophesied genocide, or just a few so called Christians convicting one who has he desire to spread his faith, it truly doesn't matter. In either case they persecute Christ just as prophecy said they would. Sep 09 02, 12:33:03

Christian wants atheist registry

"Florida pastor, Michael Stahl has suggested that an organization and website be created that would keep track of known atheists. The website would list by city and state all atheists with their photos and some personal information such as place of business. It would not include a physical address which seems to contradict one of the main purposes of the site." -The 501C3 pastors now have the official capacity to lobby law since Bush signed them as government agencies on March 7, 2006. This pastor is merely flexing his new found muscles is all. The other toss of the coin in all this is how they will use such registries against remnant Christians who go into hiding when the mark of Rome is enforced. Sep 09 01, 13:24:21
